Richard N. Bolles Presents:

What Color is Your Parachute? for Teens

Third Edition
By Carol Christen

As millennials prepare for college and the workforce in this tough economy, it is now essential for young adults to position themselves for a career as early as possible. This fun, rewarding guide draws on the time-tested principles of the career classic What Color Is Your Parachute? to help teens discover their passions, skills, and potential college majors and dream jobs.

Christen's What Color Is Your Parachute? for Teens adapts the time-honored techniques of What Color Is Your Parachute? for a younger audience just starting off on their career path—bringing vital new information to the fore about what young people need to do now to get the job they want later.

Tackling pertinent career issues young people face—from the high cost of education to the increasingly competitive job market—the book shows readers how to put together a blueprint for finding jobs that match their interests, and for getting the most out of high school and college in order to achieve their goals. Fully updated, this new edition offers timely advice on why foot-in-the-door internships are more important than ever and how a gap year with career goals in mind can ensure the right “purchase” in one’s education.

Loaded with self-discovery exercises and valuable tips from the world’s best-selling job-hunting book, What Color Is Your Parachute? for Teens delivers unparalleled guidance—not only for teens in search of a perfect career, but for the parents and counselors eager to inspire them.
